The #CESESummit is a gathering of minds and hearts, unlike any other—a formidable assembly where the broadest spectrum of leaders, advocates, and survivors converge with a unified purpose to end sexual abuse and exploitation.

Over the years, this global summit has been the catalyst behind sweeping changes and resounding victories for human dignity. Through a collaborative effort, innovative strategies, and continuous learning, the CESE Summit has catalyzed the evolution of a united movement not merely content with living amid these challenges, but relentlessly committed to eradicating them.

About

The National Center on Sexual Exploitation (NCOSE) is a leading force dedicated to preventing sexual exploitation in all its forms. We strive to foster a world where all people can live and love free from sexual abuse and exploitation. Our comprehensive approach involves corporate accountability, public policy, and civil litigation to dismantle the deeply entrenched systems that perpetuate exploitation. With a proven track record of influencing policy change, empowering survivors, and shifting narratives, NCOSE is not just confronting the status quo; we're catalyzing a cultural transformation towards respect, equality, and dignity for all.

NCOSE has directed the broad and united Coalition to End Sexual Exploitation since 2010.

About

PHASE Alliance™ exists to radically reduce victimization from sexual exploitation through prevention and healing. We represent three nationally recognized organizations—Fight the New Drug, the Elizabeth Smart Foundation, and the Malouf Foundation™—which together have over 30 years of combined experience in the fight against sexual exploitation. Now we're uniting different people, perspectives, and programs to create a more powerful path forward.
